

Highland Park Individual Lesson Program

REQUIREMENTS

- It is the student's responsibility to arrive at the lesson on time, prepared to work, and with appropriate materials. The ensemble directors and instructors will not issue reminders to students.
- Music used during individual lessons will be provided by the student. After determining appropriate repertoire and selecting music with the lesson teacher, the student may be required to purchase music.
- Students who sign up for ILP will commit to lessons for a full calendar year. Should lessons be terminated before the year is over, the student will be responsible for paying 50% of the remaining contract year to the teacher.

SCHEDULING

- A student requesting lessons through the ILP will be given a 25-minute lesson once a week from an approved vocal instructor. Lessons will be taught in the practice rooms located near the main Band Room.
- Lessons will be scheduled on a first come, first served basis: during band class, lunch periods, study halls, before or after school.
- Should it be necessary to cancel a scheduled lesson, the student must contact the instructor one day before the missed lesson to request a make up. A student who fails to report to a lesson, or cancels the day of a scheduled lesson, may receive a make up at the discretion of the instructor, but must pay the cost of the missed lesson.

PAYMENT

- The cost of each lesson is $25.00 and is payable directly to the student's instructor. The student is responsible for remitting payment in a timely fashion, according to the individual instructor's policy.
- A student who fails to pay the instructor in accordance with their policy, may not receive private instruction until the account is current.
- A student who consistently fails to keep his/her account current may be asked to leave the Individual Lesson Program. Understand that our ability to attract and maintain a quality instructional staff is contingent upon teaching quality music to interested students.
- The Individual Lesson Program is considered supplemental to the students' participation in HPISD fine arts and is not a requirement for enrolling in a fine arts class. This program provides an incredible opportunity for musical growth. We highly recommend any opportunity for private study!
